Treasurer Reports our current balance is $9,430.35

Rocky Warbrick reports that the CLUB POINTS for this coming year are posted on the website. Points are given for the following: 5 points: any meeting or gathering that requires only your body has to show up... meetings, x-mas party, membership...etc. 10 points: events such as rides or races where you bring your bikes and or motor home...club ride, club race, meltdown...etc. 15 points: organizing any of the previously mentioned events or party's...trail boss, pit captain, course captain...etc. 5 points: enter a club race and compete for D-37 points 10 points: 1st place finish in class 5 points: 2nd place finish in class 3 points: 3rd place finish in class

Points are tallied MONTHLY based on sign in sheets from club rides, meetings and club races. 1st, 2nd and 3rd race points are gathered from race results. At the end of the year, awards are given to the members earning the most club points. Thank you Rocky for organizing the RUTS club points system!

Vice President Tim Scott reports that some cold weather Beanies with RUTS logo are being ordered and will be available for our next "cold season". Women's Tee's are also being ordered for the Meltdown Tee Shirts this year. You can buy apparel at the general meetings and select Club Rides / Club races.

Correspondence Secretary, Scott Burnett, reports 75 member families currently on active membership list. 2 new member applications received and in the process of interviewing and voting at next months meeting.

Brett Hall, current online video game champ, reports all is well in the virtual world of Runescape.....oh wait...that's for a different newsletter. Sorry.

Betty Hall, Webmaster, requests current rider profile updates. She is in process of cleaning up the rider profiles and is looking for updates!

RUTS LOST MINE POKER RUN 2008

At the fourth edition of the Lost Mine Poker Run we explored a few more dark tunnels and even braved a climb down a vertical mineshaft in search of folded and stapled playing cards to make up either a high or low poker hand. Riders had a choice to make between two mapped routes; a 19 mile loop into the Rand Mountains or a 56 mile journey around Red Mountain. Both loops shared the first check located inside a slanting mineshaft along trail R24. The ceiling in this mine looked shaky, barely held up by wood posts and a crazy assortment of shims. I found Pam Walton at this check, waiting for the rest of her group. Seems Jacob had taken the lead on his new Honda 450 and disappeared in the wrong direction.

After the first check the two routes split. The long loopers dropped down the north side of Government Peak while the 19 milers came down road R85 to find their next check in a mattress springs next to a vertical mineshaft. Steve Dahlin and Paul Heid led a large group on this route as they found the next check deep inside a horizontal mineshaft where flashlights were needed to avoid stepping on a rabbit skeleton. The next check was shared by both loops and included a bonus card for whoever dared climb down a 100 year-old ladder into a vertical mineshaft. Tom Moore and Sonny Harris helped me rig a rope here that everyone going down into the mine had to be tied to for safety. It was fun spending time at this check as each rider made the decision to go for the extra card or not.

Entries were evenly split between the long and short loops, with some people riding both! Mike and Julia Jansen took their Rhino on the long loop. Check three was near the Johannesburg store and I spent some time with them on the picnic benches in front of the store. At the conclusion of our lunch they headed away from town in the wrong direction (I think Mike had the map upside down). They eventually found the next check which was located inside a horizontal mine tunnel north of Red Mountain. After this check the long-loopers forged down a sandy wash littered with boulders which made for slow progress on the Rhinos and smaller motorcycles. Andrew Strome made the loop on a Honda 70 though, along with his brother Chris who was riding a Honda 100.

The loop around Red Mountain included a narrow motorcycle trail that forced a few of the Rhinos to seek an alternate route. Dean Mills scouted ahead for his group and decided to send them down another trail. This group included Annie Mills, Alma Puvogel and others on quads or Rhinos. I think the Jansens made the whole loop on their Rhino although Mike talked about getting a new skidplate at the conclusion of the ride.

Saturday night we were blessed by a large campfire, Sandy on the guitar leading worship and a message from the Bible about the labor required to build up treasure in Heaven. Rain broke up the party after 9pm and snow began to fall around 10pm so when we awoke Sunday morning the distant hills had a dusting of white.

My brother Paul drove down to ride the Poker Run from the snowy reaches of Montana, this year accompanied by my niece Diane. Paul lost his kickstand while riding the long loop on Saturday and Steve Walton found it on Sunday. Danny Zierau also lost his kickstand but I think it's still lost.

Randy Hettema and I found two geocaches while picking up the checks on Sunday. They were both right along our 56 mile loop. One was located inside a metal box which also contained various trinkets, with the idea being that you take something and leave something else in it's place. I took a rubber ball and left one of our Poker Run maps in it's place.

Nick Sarris appreciated the escape from civilization that the desert affords. He showed us three bullet holes in his trailer that occurred while leaving town Thursday night. Must live in a tough neighborhood.

We thought Dan Rich had the Mens class high hand sewn up when he opened up a straight at the end of the ride but then Don Stafford produced four sixes! Kelsey Stafford was also lucky in the Girls 13-19 class as her two pair was the highest hand.

The 19 mile loop was wide enough to accommodate my son Brian's Chevy truck so he and his wife Christine drove in that to find all the checks. Christine picked up three nines which was enough for high hand among the Women over 20.

Rocky and Lisa Warbrick were at the Poker Run but had to leave early when they received word of a medical emergency in the family. We gathered to pray before they went home.

Thanks to the generosity of the RUTS family we raised $2000.00 for the Lord's work in the nation of Georgia. Thanks on behalf of the Holts, let's keep them in our prayers.

Meltdown Duty Roster

All changes to Scott Burnett

scott@iccguru.com

The following two pages contain the FIRST version of the Meltdown 2008 Duty Roster.

This roster is NOT set in stone, but rather is a very flexible first version.

Version 2 (a revised version) will be in May's newsletter

Version 3 (the final Version) will be in Junes newsletter

If you would like to do something other then what is listed, you need to email your correction ASAP

If your name is missing, you have not been forgotten! The duty roster is a difficult document to create and sometimes new members or members who have not renewed their membership are overlooked by accident. You will be in revision number 2 if you email your name and requested ASAP

If you have been asked to be on a specific team other then what is listed, you need to email that duty ASAP

If you are not going to be the Meltdown this year, you need to email that ASAP

If you are listed as an assignment captain, but can not be, email that info ASAP

If you want to be an assignment captain but are not listed as such, email that info ASAP

If you think Scott Burnett has Alzheimer's because 10 months ago you verbally told him you wanted to do something DIFFERENT, then REMIND him ASAP, he is forgetful (Just ask Rocky!)

This duty roster is impossible to get right the first time and I need your help! Please review it carefully and find your name. Sometimes husbands and wives are listed separately (1 as a sweep rider and 1 in sign ups).

Meltdown, our annual D37 race, is coming up in less then 60 days. As part of RUTS membership, you are encouraged to participate in this district 37 outreach event. It is our one chance to capture the stage and share of love of Christ with our district racing friends. RUTS need all hands on deck. This event typically sees nearly 500 racers in attendance and we get the opportunity to tell them that Jesus loves them dozens of different ways! RUTS is counting on you! Please let us know if you can not make it! If we do NOT hear from you, we will assume you will be present and RUTS will be counting on you to fulfill a specific duty.

Email all changes to the roster to scott@iccguru.com

RUTS loves you and thanks you for your attendance at Meltdown!
